Town looking to fill the bus for the food bank

by Colin Smith

With food bank use increasing in Canadian communities, and no more so than in Alberta, they can use all the help they can get in feeding the hungry.

Morinville residents will have a great opportunity to do their bit during the 2015 Fill-A-Bus campaign that kicks off the Lite Up The Nite Christmas Festival.

Once again the Morinville Community Bus is the focus of this two-day effort by the Town's Community Services Department and the Morinville Food Bank Society.

They're hoping town residents will fill the bus with non-perishable food items, cleaning and personal care items, and cash donations.

On Thursday, Nov. 26 26 the bus will be travelling around the community gathering donations from area schools and businesses that have signed up to be collection points.

The next day it will be at Morinville No Frills from 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m., and Morinville Sobeys from 1:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m, where volunteers and 'a few familiar faces' will be on hand to accept donations.

Organizers are hoping for a substantial increase in donations over last year, a year where the amount collected actually declined.

"We did experience an unfortunate dip last year, predominantly due to what I've dubbed 'Snowmageddon'," said organizer Melodie Steele. "Over the course of the two event days, the area received an inordinate amount of snow, coupled with very cold temperatures and extreme wind chill."

The total of donations collected during the two days of the 2014 campaign last year was 3,546 pounds, less than half of 2013's total of 7,255 pounds of food and household items.

However, Champion Petfoods donated an entire pallet of pet food weighing more than 2,000 pounds, and the $4,478 in monetary donations surpassed the $3,231 collected in 2013.

According to the 2015 Hunger Count report from Food Banks Canada, across the country food bank use is up about 1.3 per cent over last year, but jumped by 23 per cent in Alberta.

To volunteer for Fill-A-Bus or register a business as a collection point, contact Community Services at 780-939-7840.

Operation Christmas Child

November 16-22 was National Collection Week for the Canada-wide Operation Christmas Child shoebox program. Collection points in Morinville included Carrie's Hair Design and Morinville Sobeys. Morinville Public School collected more than 30 shoeboxes for the program this year.

Instructions on what to pack and what not to pack were provided with the boxes provided to participate in the campaign.

Last year Canadians filled more than 700,000 shoeboxes with gifts for children living in conditions of poverty, disease, war and natural disaster. The shoeboxes collected in Morinville and throughout Canada last week will make a journey into the hands of needy children in Haiti, Latin America and West Africa.

Operation Christmas Child is a project of Samaritan's Purse.

Bidding for a cause

The 18th Annual Santa Store Auction took place at Coach's Corner in Morinville Saturday night with more than 100 lots up for bid. The annual event packs the local bar with those looking to bid big in aid of the Midstream Support Society's Santa Store. Friends of the Santa Store Auction Committee Director Deborah Robillard said just a little over $12,300 was raised at the event.

"Chair Tina Gougeon, Secretary Lisa Piche, Directors Crystal Ringuette, Deborah Robillard, Erin Hoffman, the five elf assistants and numerous volunteers worked hard and put in many hours to make the event a success," said Joyce Preeper, Friends of the Santa Store Auction Committee Treasurer, adding the group was thankful to every person who took the time to come out and bid.

The Santa Store, opened at the local thrift shop during the Christmas season, allows those in need an opportunity to obtain one large and one small gift for their children.

Police report on dangers relating to children and strangers

submitted by RCMP

On Nov. 19, 2015, Morinville RCMP received a complaint from Notre Dame school that two teenagers had attempted to lure a child away from the school. Upon further investigation by the Morinville RCMP detachment, three other children came forward to report similar incidents this same date; all related to the same teenage youth. The youth responsible for these actions have been identified by police but their names will not be released as per the provisions of the Youth Criminal Justice Act.

"Anytime we have incidents such as these, especially with children, we take the matters very seriously. We are thankful the young children were cognizant enough to present these teenagers with obstacles and prevent them from achieving what ever outcome they were looking for," said Corporal Daryl Charron of the Morinville RCMP. "We encourage parents and guardians to talk with their children about the dangers associated with talking to strangers and ensure they are made aware of the reality of these unfortunate incidents. The best thing we can do for our children is prepare them and present them with tools they can use in the case they are faced with a similar situations."

Morinville RCMP are continuing with their investigation but no charges are likely at this time.

ELVIS '56 brings the magic of the King to Morinville

- Lucie Roy Photos

by Morinville News Staff

Hailed as one of the most talented Elvis Tribute Artists (ETA) in the world, Cody Ray Slaughter has performed across the United States and on Late Night with David Letterman. The ETA made a stop in Morinville Nov. 17 as part of his Nov. 14 to 25 Canadian tour. The show is a tribute to the 60th anniversary of Elvis' rise from small town to International phenomenon.

The performer, who looks, sounds and acts like a young Elvis, won the People's Choice Award during Elvis Week 2008, the New Horizon Award for best new Elvis Tribute Artist in 2011, and was named Ultimate Elvis in the same year by Elvis Presley Enterprises.

On Nov. 17 Slaughter and fellow performers Stephanie Z and the Hillbilly Katz won the hearts of the roughly 250 concert goers who came to see the show.

"Welcome to the family, ladies and gentlemen," Slaughter told first-time viewers of his show. "We're all one big, happy family. So I want you all to let loose. There's no seat belts. We took them out."

Slaughter gave his audience lots of opportunity to let loose in a show that ran one-hour-and 45-minutes long with a 20-minute intermission.

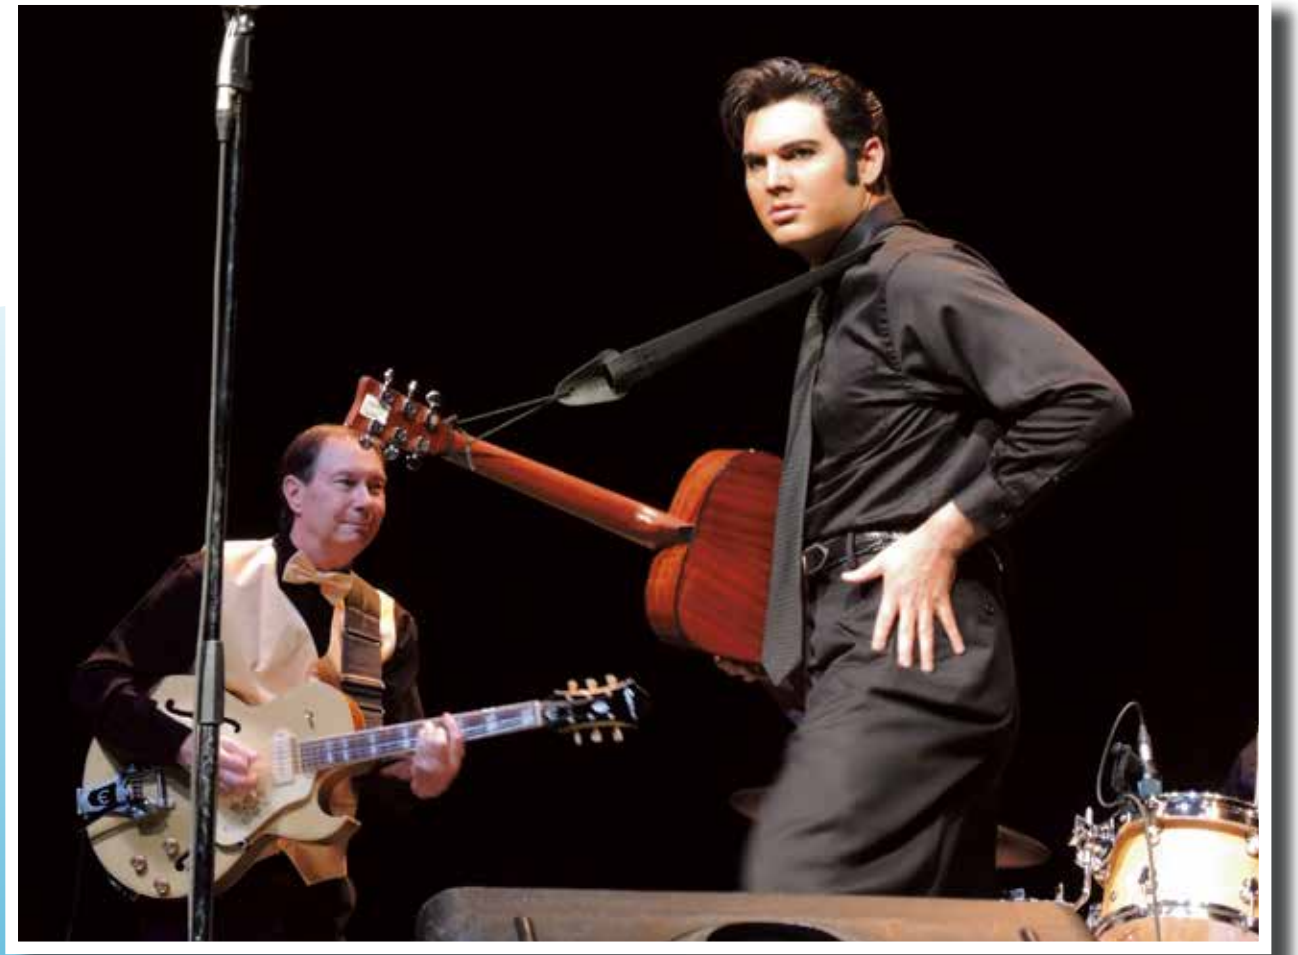
The music covered Elvis' top 100 hits and 11 television appearances in the 1950s. This was not the sequined jumpsuit Elvis. Rather, Slaughter's Elvis '56 captured the story and music of a shy young southern gentlemen full of charm and a voice that has captivated millions. Fellow entertainer Stephanie Z offered up some of the hits made famous by female vocalists in the middle of the 20th Century.

Audience members were quick to offer their positive opinion of the show through social media on Morinville News' Facebook page.

"He was terrific, and so was Stephanie," wrote Debbie Russell. "Great entertainment for Morinville."

Michelle Thibert Ozipko said she and her daughter were pleased with the show as well. "Loved it. My 9-year-old Elvis fan wants to go to Red Deer next week to see it again," she wrote.

Slaughter was set to play Vegreville Nov. 18 before heading to Langham and Prince Albert Saskatchewan Nov. 19 and 20.



Clockwise from above:

Morinville's biggest Elvis fan, Kiara Gauthier, got to give Cody Ray Slaughter a hug.

MCHS Jr. Boys grab gold

by Stephen Dafoe

Three straight wins put the Junior Boys on the path to zone victory.

The North Central 3J/4J Volleyball Zones took place at Morinville Community High School Nov. 17. The Junior boys, who have had a solid season this year with a 21-2 record in league play, took gold in the final game last Tuesday night.

The Junior Boys swept through three round robin games, defeating Mayerthorpe 25-17 and 25-13 before taking down the Holy Redeemer Rebels 25-17 and 25-22. The boys played their final round robin game against RF Staples and won 25-17 / 25-21.

Although eight missed serves helped put them on the downside of a 25-22 opening set against Edson, the Wolves came back from a 24-22 second set to win 26-24. The boys took the semi-final in the third set with a 15-11 win.

The Wolves played Neerlandia in the final, a team who defeated them in the final at the Westlock tournament. In Tuesday night's final, the boys lost their first set 25-13 but won the second set against the Eagles handily at 25-15. A 15-11 third, lead by Chris Ogie's blocking, shut down the Eagles and gave the Jr. Wolves their zones victory.

Coach Kent Lessard said he was pleased with the season's success.

"The Jr. Wolves won five out of six tournaments this season," he said. "They finished second in the other tourney. We were lead by some experienced players: Andrew Seguin, Evan Kohut, Carter Hills and Chris Ogie. The rest of the players showed tremendous improvement. The boys worked very hard and have grown into a close team."

The Jr. Wolves travelled to Bellerose High School Thursday and took the SAPEC final.

The Jr. Girls also took their respective Zones in Mayerthorpe Nov. 17 and SAPEC Tier 2 Title Nov. 18.

Ringette on the rise

Morinville was host to the first game of the season for local ringette players. The Morinville team hosted Spruce Grove, who won the day 7-5. Morinville was to face Westlock on Sunday. Results were not available by our press deadline. Ringette has risen from about 22 players in 2014 to 33 this season, a 50 per cent increase.
