

Call for Nominations United Nations International Women's Day

Help St. Albert and the Sturgeon Region Honour our Women.

There are women amongst us who demonstrate skill, generosity of spirit, courage, creativity, determination, steadfastness, leadership, enthusiasm, love, care, and other attributes that enrich our lives and our communities everyday.

Please let us know who they are!

Please take this opportunity to nominate an outstanding woman or female youth you would like to see recognized at the upcoming United Nations International Women's Day award ceremony that will be celebrated on Saturday, March 3, 2018 in St. Albert.

Individuals, organizations and community groups are welcome to put forward nominations.

Categories include, but are not limited to: arts, business, professional achievement, medicine, community service, education, health, literacy, mentorship, motherhood, peace, youth, aboriginal initiatives, and science.

Please complete the following two-page nomination form and submit it to the St. Albert Bahá'í Women's Day committee before the deadline.

Nominations close at 9:00 am on February 2, 2018!

You can submit your nomination by:
